Tim Lloyd made his Randwick Petersham 1st Grade debut on 27 September 2003 along with Nathan Rosser and Glenn Farquharson. It was also his first Sydney Grade Cricket debut. The match was a one day limited overs game against Manly-Warringah at Manly Oval. A right arm fast medium bowler, Tim bowled tidily for 0 for 40 from his maximum 10 overs.

The arrival of Gloucestershire fast bowler Jon Lewis saw him relegated to 2nd Grade after just one match in Firsts where he played four games before suffering an injury which put him out for the remainder of the season. When he recovered he decided to return to his former club Helensburgh CC. He had taken five wickets in Seconds at an average of 37.60.

Despite only playing one 1st Grade game he regarded the opportunity of playing with players such as Simon Katich and Richard Chee Quee as one of his great thrills in cricket.
