After some excellent performances in 2nd Grade, 25 years old batsman Andrew Williams made his 1st Grade cricket debut in round six against North Sydney at North Sydney Oval. He came to the wicket with the score 4-51 chasing a target of 186 to win. Joining former Test batsman Simon Katich, the pair put on 136 for the 5th wicket in just 114 minutes to win the match. Andrew hit four boundaries and a six from 91 balls in an impressive debut of 49 not out. He played the following four matches in 1st grade without success and completed the season in 2nd Grade.

Andrew originally played with Stockton and Northern District Cricket Club in the Newcastle District Cricket Association.
